IRIS INTERACTIVE

◆ Expert, Interactive Training Redefined

Skills gap needs aren't limited to a single location. Thanks to iris, neither are the highest quality training solutions. Penn College's fully interactive, instructor-led training platform delivers technical and business skill development to any location.

◆ Consistent Skill Development

Methods and terminology for improving and executing nearly any skill varies across training programs. Training all employees with a consistent approach maximizes the benefits of competency improvement. Bring every employee's skills to the same, high level with expert programs delivered via iris.

◆ Benefits Companies of Any Size

Small companies can now participate in the highest quality training in consortia made possible by iris. Large corporations benefit by training multiple locations simultaneously, avoiding the high cost of duplicate programs and expensive travel.
